

1. Introduction

The Board of Cleanaway Waste Management Ltd and its controlled entities (Cleanaway) recognises that its reputation is an essential element to its success, and that there is a direct correlation between its reputation and the integrity of the conduct of all those who represent Cleanaway.

At Cleanaway, everything we do is driven by Our Mission of Making a sustainable future possible for all our stakeholders.

Our Values guide how we behave as individuals and as a group. They provide clarity about what is important to us, guiding our priority setting and decision-making processes.

Home Safe

We take responsibility for our personal safety, as well as that of our team. We are committed to Goal Zero, because everyone deserves to go Home Safe, every day.

Stronger Together

Building from a place of strength, we are focused on creating something stronger than the sum of our parts each and every day.

Integrity

We do the right thing – no matter what. Holding ourselves to higher standards, we say what we mean, and we do what we say.

We Make A Difference

We are proud of what we do to make a sustainable future possible – for our employees, our customers, our investors, the communities in which we work, and the planet.

This Code of Conduct (Code) is underpinned by our Values and demonstrates Cleanaway's commitment to high ethical standards and behaviours. Our Mission, Values and Code, together, define the way Cleanaway manages its business and are central to supporting our culture.

With the support of the Board, this Code is binding on all directors, employees, contractors and consultants who are employed by, act for, or represent Cleanaway (collectively defined as Cleanaway Personnel). Cleanaway Personnel are expected to always act honestly, ethically, responsibly, with integrity and in the best interest of the Cleanaway.

The content of this Code is not intended to cover all possible situations. Rather, it is a reference guide that sets out certain basic principles with respect to conduct that should be followed by Cleanaway Personnel in all dealings related to Cleanaway to ensure that Cleanaway's business is conducted in accordance with the laws and regulations of all areas in which it operates. Where circumstances arise that are not covered by this Code or any of Cleanaway's policies, Cleanaway Personnel are encouraged to consult their manager or local human resources representative for an appropriate course of action.

2. Promote a safe and positive workplace

Cleanaway is committed to providing a physically and psychologically safe, healthy and harmonious working environment.

Cleanaway has also implemented health and safety policies, practices and procedures with the objective of zero harm to our employees and others. All Cleanaway Personnel are required to follow rules for safe and healthy operations and report any incident which generates an actual or potential injury. They should advise their manager or other relevant management representatives immediately if they see a work practice or activity which they consider to be conducted in an unsafe or careless manner.

All Cleanaway Personnel are responsible for ensuring that all Cleanaway operations are conducted safely, and that the workplace is free from all forms of discrimination, harassment, bullying and other inappropriate behaviours. Cleanaway values the diverse backgrounds of its people and seeks to create an atmosphere of trust, honesty and respect. Cleanaway Personnel are expected to treat fellow personnel with respect and dignity regardless of gender, race, ethnic origin, religion, marital status, age, physical and mental ability, sexual orientation or other status. Bullying, harassment or discrimination of any kind is not acceptable.

If you are subjected to any workplace conduct that could be considered bullying, harassment or discrimination by Cleanaway Personnel or you have witnessed any workplace conduct that you consider may be bullying, harassment or discrimination by Cleanaway Personnel, you should report the matter to your Manager, your local human resources representative or contact a member of the Legal and Company Secretarial Department for guidance. You can also raise any concerns anonymously using Cleanaway's Faircall service.

3. Enhance the communities in which we operate

Cleanaway takes pride in supporting the communities in which it operates and is committed to building strong community relationships that reflect its values. Additionally, Cleanaway is dedicated to providing environmentally sustainable services, products and solutions, and to continually improving our environmental standards consistent with Our Mission of 'Making a sustainable future possible'. To this end, Cleanaway Personnel are responsible for understanding relevant environmental and operating policies and guidelines to ensure that all business activities are carried out with proper regard to the community and the environment.

Cleanaway Personnel must take necessary steps to ensure that they are fully aware of, understand, and act within the confines of all relevant laws and regulations covering their individual business areas. If uncertainty regarding the application and interpretation of the law exists, assistance can be sought through the Legal Department.

4. Avoid conflicts of interest

Cleanaway Personnel are expected to make decisions that are in the best interests of Cleanaway and not for personal gain. Cleanaway Personnel should not engage in activities or hold or trade assets that involve, or could appear to involve, a conflict between their personal interests and the interests of Cleanaway without prior disclosure and, where appropriate, approval. Such circumstances could compromise or appear to compromise the ability of Cleanaway Personnel to make impartial business decisions.

If in any doubt about a conflict of interest, you should discuss it with your Manager or the Legal and Company Secretarial Department to ensure an appropriate action is taken.

5. Avoid actions that constitutes bribery or corruption

Cleanaway Personnel must not under any circumstances, whether directly or indirectly, engage in conduct that constitutes bribery or corruption, make facilitation payments or pay secret commissions. Bribery may take the form of acceptance of cash, cash equivalents, other benefits (e.g. gifts, hospitality, travel or entertainment), or the provision of favours or anything else of material value. Corruption involves a person improperly using or abusing their position, knowledge, power or resources for personal gain or the advantage of others.

Cleanaway Personnel must not accept gifts or hospitality or provide the same to anyone (including to clients or suppliers) in circumstances which could be perceived as improperly influencing a relationship or the exercise of judgement affecting Cleanaway or its business. If you are unsure whether a gift or benefit is appropriate, you should discuss the matter with your manager or the Company Secretarial Department.

6. Ensure integrity of financial and other information

Many Cleanaway Personnel participate in processes that directly impact on the integrity of Cleanaway's external reporting. Cleanaway Personnel have a responsibility to act in accordance with all relevant accounting standards, policies and disclosure requirements and ensure that financial and all other business information are recorded in an accurate and timely fashion. Any known inaccuracies must be immediately reported and Cleanaway Personnel must not enter any unrecorded or "off the books" transactions or create false, misleading or artificial records in any circumstances.

7. Protect confidential information

Any confidential information including proprietary, technical and financial information must be protected by Cleanaway Personnel and should be handled on a strict need to know basis. Cleanaway's trade secrets should be appropriately safeguarded. Cleanaway Personnel should also respect the privacy of individuals and comply with the Cleanaway's Privacy Policy and the applicable privacy laws in relation to the collection, use and handling of other people's personal information.

In the course of their work, Cleanaway Personnel may learn of "inside information" about Cleanaway and other companies. Cleanaway Personnel must not use non-public information for personal profit or discuss such information with anyone who does not have a legitimate business reason to know such information. Cleanaway Personnel must only trade in Cleanaway shares in the approved "trading windows" and in accordance with the Cleanaway's Securities Trading Policy.

8. Protection and use of property

Cleanaway Personnel are responsible for the protection and proper use of all Cleanaway property and the property of Cleanaway's customers used in carrying out their tasks and responsibilities. Cleanaway Personnel should take reasonable steps to prevent theft, damage or misuse of Cleanaway property and the property of its customers.

Cleanaway property includes tangible items such as inventory, plant and equipment, petty cash, but also includes corporate information and intellectual property such as copyright and trademarks.

9. Abide by competition and consumer laws

All of the business activities in which Cleanaway is engaged are highly competitive. It is Cleanaway policy to compete vigorously but fairly. A major part of this commitment is to abide by applicable competition and consumer laws. In general terms, these laws prohibit Cleanaway from collaborating with its competitors to restrain or reduce competition or business rivalry or engaging in conduct which is misleading or deceptive.

Cleanaway Personnel must abide by applicable competition and consumer laws intended to ensure and maintain competition in all markets in which Cleanaway operates, and ensure compliance with Cleanaway's Competition and Consumer Law Policy. Cleanaway Personnel must at all times act ethically and fairly in their dealings with customers, suppliers and the markets in which Cleanaway does business.

Cleanaway Personnel must never make a deliberately misleading or false representation concerning Cleanaway or its business operations.

If Cleanaway Personnel are aware of any issues which could constitute a breach of competition and consumer laws, they should immediately consult with their Manager or the Legal Department immediately.

10. Communicating on social media

Cleanaway has in place a Social Media Policy which sets out specific expectations of Cleanaway Personnel. To ensure that Cleanaway Personnel engage responsibly in social media, it is essential that Cleanaway Personnel do not commit any action or engage in any behaviour that has the potential to bring Cleanaway, its employees, or Cleanaway's reputation into disrepute. The Social Media Policy sets out clear expectations for work and private social media use and Cleanaway Personnel are expected to familiarise themselves with their responsibilities to Cleanaway.

11. Compliance with policies

Failure to adhere to the Code of Conduct or any of the following key policies supporting this Code will be considered serious misconduct and may result in disciplinary action which could include termination of employment. If you are aware of any serious misconduct or unethical behaviour that contravenes this Code, any Cleanaway policies or the law, you should report this to your manager or make a report using the Cleanaway Whistleblower service. This service is fully independent and information can be provided on an anonymous basis. Full details on how to use this service can be found in the Whistleblower Policy.
