

DUST SUPPRESSION SYSTEM

An industrial high-pressure misting system on cyclic timer will be installed for dust suppression within the building.

The same system can also be used for misting odour neutralising agent, if required.

Odour neutralisers are typically made from essential oils, surfactants and aromatics.

Continuous use of odour neutralising agent is not considered necessary at this stage.